

DID YOU EVER SEE A RABBIT?

Verse by L. Frank Baum.
Music by Alberta N. Hall.
Pictures by Wm. W. Denslow.

Did you ever see a rabbit
climb a tree?
Did you ever see a lobster
ride a flea?
Did you ever?
No, you never!
For they simply couldn't do it, don't you see!

The first system of the musical score for 'Did You Ever See a Rabbit?'. It features a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are 'Did you ev - er see a rab - bit climb a tree? Did you'.

ev - er see a lob - ster ride a flea? Did you ev - er? No, you

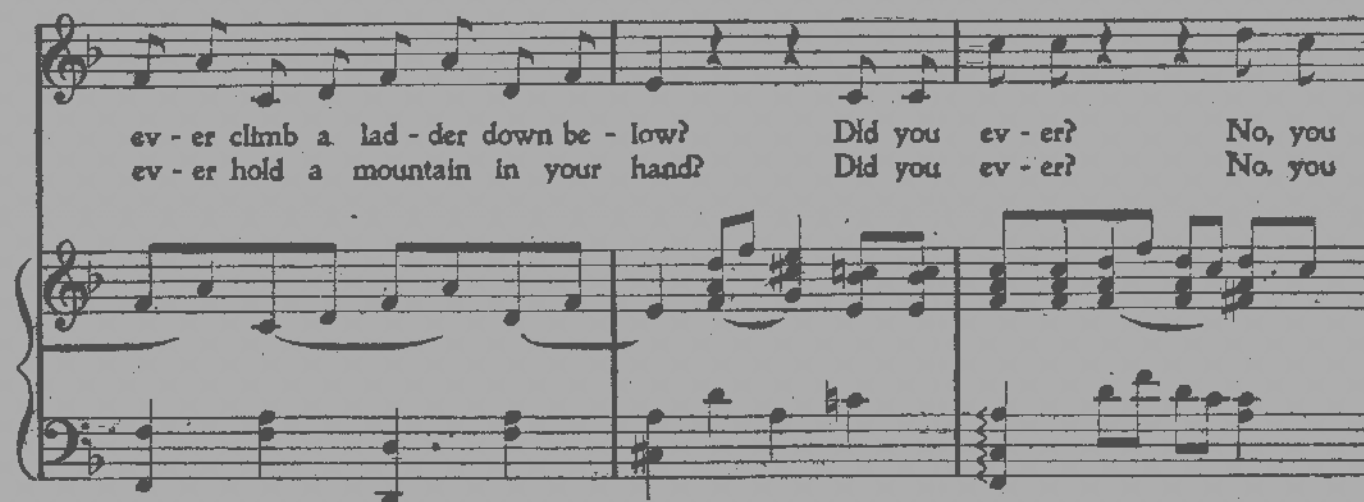

The second system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics 'ev - er see a lob - ster ride a flea? Did you ev - er? No, you'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines in both hands.

nev-er! For they sim - ply could-n't do it, don't you see!

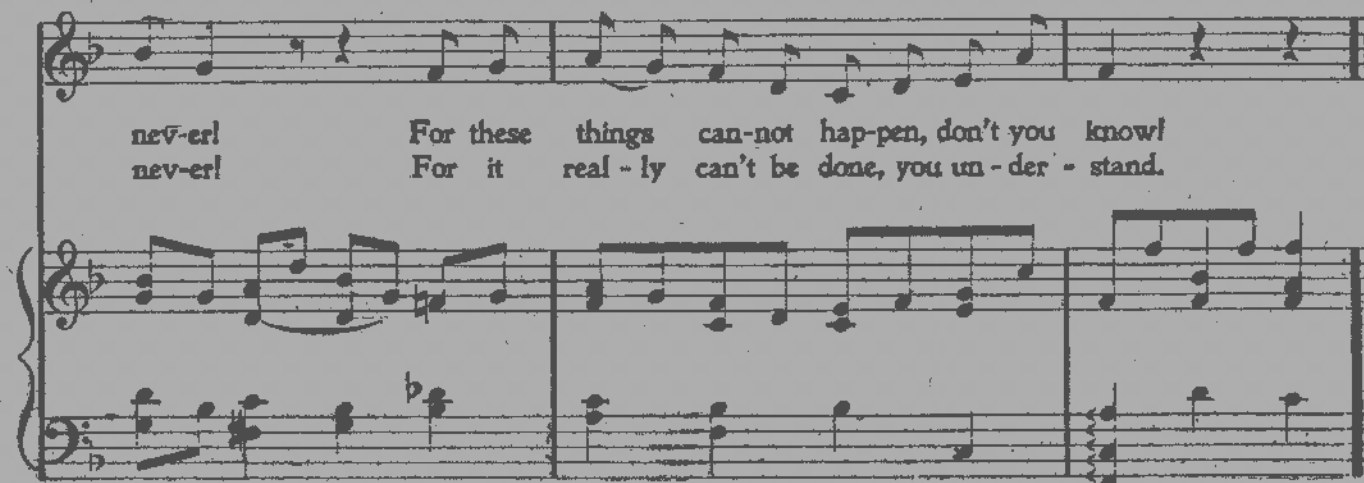

The third system of the musical score, concluding the piece. The vocal line ends with 'nev-er! For they sim - ply could-n't do it, don't you see!'. The piano accompaniment provides a final harmonic support.

Did you ev - er see a fire burn with snow? Did you Did you ev - er see a ship sail on the land? Did you ev - er climb a lad - der down be - low? Did you ev - er? No, you ev - er hold a mountain in your hand? Did you ev - er? No, you nev - er! For these things can - not hap - pen, don't you know!

nev - er! For it real - ly can't be done, you un - der - stand.

Did you ever see a fire burn with snow?
Did you ever climb a ladder down below?

Did you ever?

No, you never!

For these things cannot happen, don't you know?

Did you ever see a ship sail on the land?

Did you ever hold a mountain in your hand?

Did you ever?

No, you never!

For it really can't be done, you understand.
